

February SPACEPORT ROCKETRY ASSOCIATION 2021 LAUNCH REPORT

The weather was great. A little cool, by Florida standards, but great. The winds were cooperating by staying in the 15 to 20 mph range. The clouds were light most of the day. For the first time back in The Compound (City of Palm Bay Special Event Permit) the turnout was a little light with 31 Low and Mid Power rockets and 10 High Power rockets, the winds caused the light turnout, mostly.

We held a makeup date for the competitions that were canceled due to the City closing down the Compound to all activity.
